Drop-in hours: by appointment

Prerequisites: To be enrolled in and receive credit for PSCH381, you must be a Psychology major who has earned a C or better in PSCH 242 (Research Methods) and either PSCH210 (Personality), PSCH 231 (Community), or PSCH 312 (Social).

Course Objectives

This course has two related goals. The first is for students to develop a knowledge base about major theories and research that inform clinical interviewing. The second is for students to develop interview skills through practice interviews with each other and with community volunteers.

Class Format

Our course will take place synchronously (live) using Zoom or Blackboard Collaborate, and attendance is required and a part of your course grade. This means we will meet for live class sessions during the times scheduled for your section of PSCH 381. This course relies on lectures, discussion & role plays. These sessions will be highly interactive so your participation is essential. You will be expected to be present with your cameras on and participate in the chat if you need to turn your camera off for bandwidth issues. We will create a better learning community when everyone can "see" each other. This is a smaller class with 25 students per section and the nature of practicing role plays with each other is that you will get to know your classmates well throughout the semester.

In addition to attending the required synchronous (live) class sessions (two 75-minute sessions per week), you will be expected to devote additional time outside of class doing the following:

- Reading emails & class announcements
- Weekly reading assignments in the textbook
- Watch any assigned videos on Blackboard
- Writing short journal entries to reflect on your learning (4 total)
- Researching & preparing a short presentation on your cultural background
- Practicing interviewing skills
- Writing two reports based on interviews

- Studying assigned readings & lecture material in preparation for midterm & final exams

In the second half of the semester (after the midterm), we will spend the bulk of our time preparing for practice interviews, conducting interviews online via Zoom or Blackboard Collaborate, and group supervision.

Privacy Notification and Policy for Video Recording of Synchronous Class Sessions

We will be recording the class sessions, or portions of the class, for students who are unable to attend synchronously. The lecture portion will be recorded; discussions & role plays will not be recorded. The recording feature for others is disabled so that no one else will be able to record this session through Zoom, Blackboard Collaborate, Webex, or Echo360. Recording by other means is not permitted. The recorded class sessions will be posted on our Blackboard class website unless otherwise notified.

If you have privacy concerns and do not wish to appear in the recording, turn OFF your video and notify me in writing (via email) prior to the next class session. If you prefer to use a pseudonym instead of your name, please let me know what name you will be using, so that I can identify you during the class session. If you would like to ask a question, you may do so privately through the chat feature by addressing your question to me or your TA only (and not to "everyone"), or you may contact me by another private method, which we will agree upon in advance of class. If you have questions or concerns about this video recording policy, please contact me before the end of the first week of class.

Course Blackboard: Students are expected to log into the course site regularly to learn about any developments related to the course as well as to upload assignments. Announcements will be emailed to the class and posted in the "Announcements" section on the course Blackboard. For all technical questions about Blackboard, email ACCC Learning Technology Solutions at LTS@uic.edu.

Towards the goal of making learning as impactful as possible this semester, and at the same time acknowledging the stress and anxiety you may be feeling about the uncertainties in your daily routines and educational experiences related to COVID-19, we will strive to abide by two overarching principles in this class:

1. engage in clear and frequent two-way communication regarding my expectations of you, class assignments, and unexpected challenges arising that may impede your participation in required class sessions, including exams, or timely completion of assignments, and
2. build an inclusive learning community in which we all abide by the same ground rules and ethical code of conduct.

I look forward to connecting with you this fall. I will do my best to support your learning experience by listening to your needs and by conducting this course with compassion, empathy, and patience.

Textbook (Required): Clinical Interviewing, 6th Edition by John & Rita Sommers-Flanagan (Wiley). Available at the UIC bookstore and elsewhere. (Previous editions are not acceptable, but used copies are fine; access to online videos is not required.)

Course Requirements & Grading:

Final grades in this course will be given based on a maximum total of 340 points:

1. ATTENDANCE (50 points): Attendance in live class sessions is required. Everyone will start the semester with 50 points toward their attendance grade. Each absence will result in a 10-point deduction. I do understand that current conditions could make it difficult at times to attend class so please email me if attendance is a concern. I am always willing to work with students who make a genuine effort to be in class and communicate with me.
2. CULTURE PRESENTATION (10 points): Each student will choose an aspect of their cultural background to research and to present to the class in a brief, informal 5-minute presentation. Students will have the option of recording their presentation to share on Blackboard or presenting virtually in real time. Further details will be provided in class.
2. JOURNAL ENTRIES (5 points x 4 = 20 points): Learning to become a better interviewer often involves personal reflection and growth. Each student will submit 4 brief (1-page) journal entries (each worth 5 points) reflecting on various topics discussed in class, in the textbook, or role play and interviewing experiences. Please be thoughtful and focus on your learning process as it relates to the course. Occasionally, I may assign topics for you to write about. APA-style is not required, but please use proper spelling and grammar. Journal entries may be submitted on Blackboard. Two journal entries are due before the midterm exam, and 2 more after the midterm exam. You may submit only one journal entry in a single week.
3. MIDTERM & FINAL EXAMS (50 points x 2 = 100 points): The Midterm and Final exams are each worth 50 points. Both exams are “in class” exams and must be taken synchronously during scheduled class time on the day the exams are scheduled. Please communicate with me if the exam dates conflict with your schedule or if you have DRC accommodations. Details regarding the format of the exams will be provided in class.
4. PRACTICE INTERVIEWS (20 points x 3 = 60 points): Each student will interview 2 volunteer interviewees in an online, virtual format similar to what's happening around the world with health care professionals providing “telehealth.” The first interview will take place with a classmate who will be randomly assigned. Interviews 2 & 3 will take place with a student in the other section of PSCH 381 taught by Dr. Kim-Cohen. There is no need for students to recruit their own volunteer interviewees. Please see the course calendar below for weeks when Practice Interviews will occur. Students will schedule interviews with their interviewees and upload recordings on the interviews on Blackboard. The instructor and TAs will observe videos and provide individualized feedback asynchronously.

- 5. WRITTEN INTERVIEW REPORTS (50 points x 2 = 100 points): You will write an intake report about each of your interviewees. The first intake report will be based on a single 45-minute interview; the second intake report will be based on two 45-minute interviews. Intake reports will be approximately 6-9 pages in length, double-spaced. Intake Report 1 is due by 11:59pm on Sunday, Nov 8th. Intake Report 2 is due by 11:59pm on Tuesday, Dec 8th.

Final grades will be determined by total points as follows:

Letter Grade	Minimum Points	Percentage
A	306	90% - 100%
B	272	80% - 89%
C	238	70% - 79%
D	204	60% - 69%
F	Less than 204	< 60%

In the event of partial points, I will round up final grades if the decimal point is .5 or higher. If the decimal is anything lower than .5, I will round the final grade down (e.g., .499 is rounded down). Absolutely no exceptions will be made to these policies.

Policies & Procedures

- Attendance policy: Attendance in class is required. Not only will attendance directly impact your participation grade, it will impact how much you learn and get out of the class. Your absence will also affect the experience of your classmates with whom you will do role plays, so please make every effort to attend. Attendance will be taken each day. Anyone who arrives more than 10 minutes late to class will be marked absent.

Particular days, marked with ** on the class schedule, are especially important and should not be missed if at all possible. These include days when we are preparing for and reviewing Practice Interviews (group supervision), and are marked with ** on the class schedule.

- Class participation: This course will consist of active discussion and multiple role plays. Students must read assigned material before class in order to be prepared. Students will also be expected to participate in the role plays, alternating as mock interviewer, interviewee, and observer.
- Lecture slides: PDF copies of lecture slides will be posted on Blackboard after each class. However, please keep in mind that lecture slides will not be an adequate substitute for attending class, paying attention, and taking notes.
- Correspondence/e-mail: The TAs and I typically respond to student emails within 24 hours (a bit longer over weekends), however, we receive a huge number of emails each day. Please make an effort to ask questions in person either before or after each class, or during drop-in hours. In order to get a quicker response when you email, be sure to mention which section of PSCH 381 you are in—either 11am or 12:30pm. If you are emailing to request an appointment, list 3-5 specific dates and times when you are available. This will make scheduling of meetings more efficient.

- Required Technology: Online students will need regular access to a personal computer that runs on a broadband Internet connection. Please contact ACCC to request and borrow a laptop or be assigned a hotspot for the semester if you do not have the required hardware and internet capabilities.
- Respect for Copyright: Please protect the integrity of all course materials and content. By enrolling in this course, you agree to honor this request. Be mindful of the hard work and time that instructors and TAs put into creating course materials such as exam and quiz questions, worksheets, lecture videos, Powerpoint slides, and reading materials. Please do not upload course materials not created by you onto third-party websites or share content with anyone who is not enrolled in our course. I am grateful for your cooperation in honoring this important request. In the same email to me, tell me your favorite ice cream flavor.
- Our Inclusive Learning Environment: UIC values diversity and inclusion. Regardless of age, disability, ethnicity, race, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, socioeconomic status, geographic background, religion, political ideology, language, or culture, we expect all members of this class to contribute to a respectful, welcoming, and inclusive environment for every other member of our class. If there are aspects of the instruction or design of this course that result in barriers to your inclusion, engagement, accurate assessment or achievement, please notify me as soon as possible.
- Accommodations for Disabilities. UIC is committed to full inclusion and participation of people with disabilities in all aspects of university life. If you face or anticipate disability-related barriers while at UIC, please connect with the Disability Resource Center (DRC) via email at drc@uic.edu, or call (312) 413-2183 to create a plan for reasonable accommodations. In order to receive accommodations, you will need to disclose the disability to the DRC, complete an interactive registration process with the DRC, and provide me with a Letter of Accommodation (LOA). Upon receipt of a LOA, I will gladly work with you and the DRC to implement approved accommodations.
- Religious holidays: I will make every effort to avoid scheduling exams or requiring student assignments to be submitted on religious holidays. If you wish to observe your religious holidays, please notify me by the tenth day of the semester of the date when you will be unable to submit an assignment by the due date. If the religious holiday is observed on or before the tenth day of the semester, please notify me at least five days in advance of the date when you will be unavailable to complete an assignment. If a quiz or assignment is due during your absence, you will be given a quiz or assignment equivalent to the one completed by those students in attendance. Students may appeal through campus grievance procedures for religious accommodations.
- Academic Integrity - Student Community Standards: UIC is an academic community committed to providing an environment in which research, learning, and scholarship can flourish and in which all endeavors are guided by academic and professional integrity. In this community, all members including faculty, administrators, staff, and students alike share the responsibility to uphold the highest standards of academic honesty and quality of academic work so that such a collegial and productive environment exists.

As a student and member of the UIC community, you are expected to adhere to the Community Standards of integrity, accountability, and respect in all of your academic endeavors. When accusations of academic dishonesty occur, the Office of the Dean of Students investigates and adjudicates suspected violations of this student code. Unacceptable behavior includes cheating, unauthorized collaboration, fabrication or falsification, plagiarism, multiple submissions without instructor permission, using unauthorized study aids, coercion regarding grading or evaluation of coursework, and facilitating academic misconduct. Please review the UIC Student Disciplinary Policy for additional information about the process by which instances of academic misconduct are handled towards the goal of developing responsible student behavior.

By submitting your assignments for grading you acknowledge these terms, you declare that your work is solely your own, and you promise that, unless authorized by the instructor or proctor, you have not communicated with anyone in any way during an exam or other online assessment. Let's embrace what it means to be a UIC community member and together be committed to the values of integrity.

- Late Assignment Policy: It is best to submit assignments before the due date, but we understand that life happens and we're currently in the midst of a pandemic. Therefore, late submissions are permitted for all assignments for partial credit. However, the Practice Interviews must be conducted during the weeks in which they are scheduled on the course calendar.

If you missed a due date, please do your best to submit the assignment as soon as possible. Typically, in the absence of a DRC Letter of Accommodation, any assignment submitted more than 24 hours past the due date will lose 10% of the total points possible on the assignment. For example, an assignment worth up to 50 points will lose 5 points. Three days past the due date results in a 20% deduction, and five or more days past the due date results in a 30% deduction.

If you find yourself falling behind and having trouble keeping up with assignments, please do not hesitate to reach out to me by email. What's important is that you complete assignments, learn something, and get credit for the course while protecting your mental health so please do not give up and disappear without communicating with me first.

Tutors are ready to help other writing as well, such as job applications, personal statements, and resumes. The tutor and you will work together to decide how to improve your writing. If you have not started your assignment, that is OK. A tutor can help you brainstorm or make an outline. Tutors understand that you might be using the Writing Center for the first time. They are ready to guide you through your first session. You can choose to work with a tutor in real time using chat and a white board, or submit up to 5 pages of text and receive written feedback within 48 hours. At UIC, we are strongly committed to our public safety programs, and we encourage students to be proactive in learning what programs and services are available in case of an emergency. You are DISCOURAGED from staying in university buildings alone, including lab rooms, after hours and are ENCOURAGED to use the POLICE/STUDENT patrol escort if you are uncomfortable traveling anywhere on campus. You may request an escort to accompany you to your campus destination on foot by calling (312)996-2830, and between 11:00 pm and 7:00 am you can dial the Red Car service (312)996-6800 if you are alone and need to leave the building.
